Behind-the-Scenes Tours at the Follett House Museum
Saturday, September 15, from 12:00-4:00 p.m.

Jeremy Angstadt and Ron Davidson, Sandusky Library, presenters
The Ohio History Connection is promoting a statewide event called Ohio Open Doors where historic buildings and landmarks across the state open their doors to the public for special tours and events. Get a look at some of the behind-the-scenes areas of the Follett House Museum. Along the way you'll learn more about our collection, what goes into making an exhibit, and how items are preserved. Tours will run every half hour. The Ohio Open Doors event runs statewide September 7-16. Check ohiohistory.org for additional host sites.

History of the Firelands*

Tuesday, September 18, at 12:00 p.m.

Tom Neel, Library Director, Ohio Genealogical Society, presenter
Learn about the history of the Firelands, how they were created, and who the fire sufferers were.

Transforming Suffering

Wednesday, September 19, at 6:00 p.m.

Katherine Hall, Licensed Social Worker, Stein Hospice, presenter
We encounter many losses throughout our lives, and some of the most common ones result from death, change, or transition. It could be from things we never had that we wished for or felt we deserved, shattered dreams, or even regrets. Get a 'tool box' at this program to help you transform your suffering.

OhioMeansJobs - Erie County Drop-In
Thursday, September 20, from 10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

OhioMeansJobs - Erie County helps guide you with your job search, both in person and online. Staff from OMJ will be available at the Library to assist with registering on the website, job searching, creating a resume, applying for jobs online, and more. Be sure to stop in and meet with them!

Play. Learn. Grow.

Thursdays, September 20 & 27, at 10:30 a.m.

Children birth-3 years (siblings up to age 5 are welcome) and their caregivers will have an opportunity to play with a variety of age-appropriate toys. Also, each week a different local child development and health professional will be on hand as a great resource.

Battle of the Books

Saturday, September 22, at 1:00 p.m. @ Sandusky Library

Cheer for Team Sandusky Library at the 4th Annual Battle of the Books! This is a literary trivia competition for students entering grades 4-8 with questions derived from eight pre-selected books for tweens. Teams from several area libraries will compete during the Battle.

Book Discussion: The Giver by Lois Lowry
Monday, September 24, at 6:00 p.m.

David Swaldo and Jeremy Angstadt, Sandusky Library, discussion leaders

This haunting story centers on twelve-year-old Jonas, who lives in a seemingly ideal, if colorless, world of conformity and contentment. Not until he is given his life assignment as the Receiver of Memory does he begin to understand the dark, complex secrets behind his fragile community.

Bicentennial Buddies

Wednesday, September 26, at 4:00 p.m.

Children can practice reading and choose books to take home. They can also read their favorite stories aloud to a Therapy Dog! (suggested for students in K-3rd grade)

Bicentennial Walking Tour: Washington Park
Wednesday, September 26, at 6:00 p.m.

Erie County Historical Society, presenter
The final guided walking tour will meet at the Red Popcorn Wagon in Washington Park.
